226 Sometimes the fish are poisoned with tobacco
[824] or the juice derived from the berries of the tuba bush. Also several types of fish traps are used.

224 Deer and wild pigs are hunted with dogs. Wild pigs are also trapped in their runways. The meat thus obtained is divided with fellow hunters and among neighbors. The hunting technique is quite communistic.

SOCIETY

621 The government of the Apayaos is simple. In 622 each family the man rules supreme and orders his wo-
[595] man what to do. This is the unit.

[361] A group of from 15 to 30 families build their houses near each other, babalay, being joined together for mutual aid and protection under one head man,
[57] maingel, who holds his position because he is the na-
[554] tural leader, is wealthy, and is the stongest and fiercest
622 warrior. The maingel wears a red turban on his head
624 and his arms are tattooed to the shoulders. He is absolute ruler; but has several advisory assistants, pangmarwan, who likewise have won their position through ability. The next best man to the maingel, is his number one assistant and so on. The common man may advise a pangmarwan. Upon the death of the maingel the number one pangmarwan takes his place.
627 The maingel and pangmarwans sit as a court to judge
692 any one who has broken the common law. Disputes between individuals are settled by intermediary peace
681 makers. It is notable that the fines are not paid to the government, but to the injured party, who receives the suitable indemnity. This may be in the form of jars, beads, animals, and other valuables.
